: Dist. Judge McLaughlin

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

AND NOW, Comes the Plaintiff and requests that the Court appoint counsel, and represents in support the following:

1. On many occasions Plaintiff has requested the appointment of counsel so that he could properly present his claims. The magistrate judge repeatedly denied plaintiff counsel, although over 90 documents have been filed during the three (3) years course of this litigation.

2. Now, the same magistrate would have this matter dismissed on the basis that plaintiff, untrained in law, failed to served a defendant, inter alia.

3. Plaintiff therefore requests this Court appoint counsel to assist in this matter, as the failure to do following previous and repeated requests has prejudiced plaintiff.
